

David King, Adjunct Instructor – Business Law

David King is a graduate of Indiana University and the Indiana University School of Law. He received the 1974 Indiana University Academic Achievement award from the Fort Wayne campus. He was a practicing attorney for many years in northern Indiana extensively involved in litigation and the general practice of law. He semi-retired in the mid nineties and moved to Florida where he ultimately began work for Vengroff, Williams & Associates, Inc. in 2000. David is the Compliance Officer for VWA, one of the largest Asset Management Companies in world servicing over 20 billion dollars in account receivables. They have multiple offices throughout the United States and Europe. Their home office in Sarasota has approximately 250 employees. David has served as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Manatee Community College and currently teaches as an Adjunct Instructor of Law at the University of South Florida.