

▲ Members of the San Diego Chapter, from left: Chair Carlos Soyran, '04; Billy Buchner, '01; Geoff Silpa, '09; Kelli McKernan, '06; Mike Hulsbeck, '76; Kathryn Jahn, '74; Melissa Goos, '08; Mark Garber, '76; Josue Vizcay, '07; Clay Deuan, '96 & MACC '99 and Treasurer Joanne Pester-Deuan, '94, were thrilled with the Bulls' win.

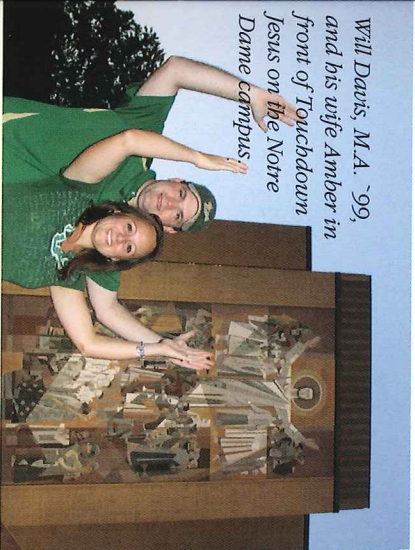

▲ Nashville Bulls held their first-ever watch party.

About 20 USF fans turned out, including Brett Patterson, '84, wife Michelle and their daughter Lexi. The watch party was held at Jonathan's Grille in Franklin, TN.

▲ Steve Kenny, Beth Fulbum, '09, Seth Hoffman, '94 and Bill Ross joined hundreds of Bulls fans for the Greater Tampa Watch Party at Lee Roy Selmon's.

Will Davis, M.A. '99, and his wife Amber in front of Touchdown Jesus on the Notre Dame campus.

▲ The Ferrando Chapter brought Rocky along to their tailgate at Hooters.

▲ About 50 people joined these members of your USF Alumni Association's New York City chapter to watch the game.

▲ Broward Chapter Chair and USEFAA Board Member Alan Steinberg, '78, and Ashley Woods, '10, staffed the USF table at a College Fair held at Taravella High in Broward. The school's principal, Shaun Cerra, '93, is a USF alumnus and very supportive of the chapter's efforts in the area. The chapter also held a very well attended Senior Send-off over the summer for students from their area who were heading north to attend USF.

▲ Did you know USF Sarasota-Manatee has a competitive rowing club? In December, they went to Chattanooga for their first official competition, the Head of the Hooch Regatta on the Tennessee River. Both the men's and women's teams placed respectably in the middle of the pack – which is pretty great for newbies. Sprint racing starts in the spring. Back Row, left to right: Jay Riley (advisor), Justin James (team founder), TJ Bradley, Alex Wann (team captain), Marshall Fisher, Andy Gould, Euan Rizzetto. Bottom row: Michael Dunno, Stephanie Fuhr (co-captain), Jessica Reyka, Laura Warner, Ashley Darr, Ragbaavendra Gadani.